

Available online from 6pm on Tuesday 11th May 2021 at www.clergysupport.org.uk/festival

Resource Pack

Thank you for helping us to share the joyous service which is our 366th Annual Festival from St Paul's Cathedral, celebrating our work. Please share as widely as you can via newsletters, websites and social media.

While we hope to return to an in-person service in 2022, this professionally filmed version allows the opportunity to reach out to the Anglican clergy and their families whom we support across the UK & Ireland. It will should also be of interest to those who like history, cathedrals and choral music.

Key Points

- Available online, for free at www.clergysupport.org.uk/festival
- Available from 6pm on Tuesday 11 May 2021 and about a month after.
- Choirs are from Liverpool, Southwark and St Paul's Cathedral where they sing from their respective cathedrals, including a joint anthem!
- Introduction from the Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby.
- Reading from the Lord Mayor of the City London, William Russell.
- Four people we support will share their story from where they live.
- Preach from the Bishop of Durham, Paul Butler (in Durham Cathedral)
- Blessing from the Bishop of London, Sarah Mullally.

Social Media

If you can, please include our social media handle in any messaging, which will help people to find us and perhaps apply. You may also find the messaging there about the Festival helpful to share. For a hashtag, please use #FestivalService2021
